

Julius Caesar Act IV quotes

Identify the speaker, meaning and page #.

1. Is it fit, the threefold world divided, he should stand One of the three to share it?
2. When love begins to sicken and decay, it useth an enforced ceremony.
3. Let me tell you, Cassius, you yourself are much condemned to have an itching palm;
4. I had rather be a dog, and bay the moon, Than such a Roman.
5. A friend should bear his friend's infirmities, But _____ makes mine greater than they are.
6. When thou didst hate him worst, thou lovedst him better Than ever thou lovedst _____.
7. Have you not love enough to bear with me what rash humor which my mother gave me Makes me forgetful?
8. There is a tide in the affairs of men, Which taken at the flood leads on to fortune.
9. To tell thee thou shalt see me at Philippi.